

CODE OF ETHICS

- To promote the professional image and reputation of the window cleaning industry.
- To encourage the highest standards of ethics and excellence between members and their customers, employees, suppliers, competitors and other members of the community at large.
- To maintain the highest professional standards of workmanship, management and service.
- To promote safety in the workplace and compliance with all applicable laws and governmental regulations; federal, state and local.
- To strive for utmost professionalism of its members and their employees.
- To promote and expand friendly exchanges of information and cooperation among window cleaners and others engaged in the industry.
- To cooperate with other industries and organizations.
- To further training and education of those connected with or desirous of becoming affiliated with the industry.